DERBY SENSATION.

SUSTAINED OBJECTION IN THE GREAT RACE.

WOMAN BRINGS DOWN THE KING'S HORSE & INJURES JOCKEY.

[Reuter's Service To The "Telegraph."]

This year's Derby will go down to history as the most sensational since its inception.

London, June 4.

There are indications of fine, warm weather for Derby Day. Crowded trains and a constant stream of motor-cars, motor omnibuses, horse vehicles, and costers with their donkey "shays," wend their way to Epsom.

Their Majesties the King and Queen will go by train. They will proceed to Epsom Downs station and drive to the course in open carriages. Regret is expressed that His Majesty has no better candidate for the Blue Riband of the Turf than Anmer, whose chance is regarded as very poor.

Anmer, bringing the horse and the jockey (H. Jones) down. Jones was injured and was removed from the course on a stretcher.

The woman was terribly mangled and it is reported that she is dead.

Earl, the jockey who rode Agadir, says a woman crouching under the rails hurled herself at Anmer, which struck her like a cannon ball and flung her some yards along the turf. The doctor says it is impossible to say for some hours whether the woman, who is named Davison, will survive.

Two cinematograph operators have secured pictures of the woman's rush.

Radiant Lame.

Owing to lameness, Radiant did not face the starter.

[It is fairly evident from the way the Derby was run that young Piper was given instructions to ride Aboyer similar to those given to that brilliant Irish jockey, Thompson, when he rode Berni to victory in the Cambridge and defeated the redoubtable Tod Sloan, and, by the way, sealed for ever the latter's connection with the English Turf. Piper, like Thompson, has evidently made every post the winning post and further he has taken good care that at the "elbow," for so is the great Tattenham Corner known to jockeys, he has not run wide and allowed Reiff to get the advantage which well judged negotiation of the corner means. According to the description to hand, Reiff was lying third at this point, and no doubt, was awaiting the mistake he was in the hope of Piper making. No doubt, too, the pet of the French turf felt that long before the distance post was reached Aboyer would have felt the strain of leading a cracking pace from the ascent of the barrier. Piper here has shown good judgment and hands. He has kept his mount in the good humour that means so much in a finish and has worried Reiff into making an effort that sent care and caution to the winds with the winning post and his opponent the only objects realisable to his vision. Desperation has apparently produced that carelessness that the Stewards of the English Jockey Club will never tolerate either from gentleman rider or stable-boy, and they have meted out the punishment which the sin carries in its wake. There is not the slightest doubt that Reiff never thought for a moment of taking an undue advantage of Piper and has fallen in the swirl of excitement which few mortals could withstand under such fiercely combative circumstances. Any advantage through superior horsemanship, or judgment at the bends, by which position is secured, would have reflected to the credit of the jockey taking it, but any advantage, accidental or otherwise, that is not straight and above board, will, and must be punished, even to the extent of warning the greatest favourite of the pigskin from the turf if needs be, if English racing is to maintain the standard which makes it the envy of the sporting world. Reiff is still young, there are many Derbys to come, and it is to be hoped that before long he will once more enjoy the sensation of being led into the Epsom enclosure the rider of the winner of the greatest horse-racing event in the world. Reiff commenced to ride in England in 1900 and Piper in 1907. In 1908 he was up on Longcroft, third in the Lincoln.]

Later.

The race resulted as follows:—
Craganour (J. Reiff) 1
Aboyer (Piper) 2
Louvois (Saxby) 3
Great Sport (Stern) 4
Agadir (Earl) 5
Aldegonde (Ballhouse) 6
Bachelor's Wedding (Donoghue) 7
Day Comet (Whalley) 8
Jameson (Wheatley) 9
Nimbus (Henry) 10
Prue (Maher) 11
Sun Yat (W. Huxley) 12
Shogun (Wootton) 13
Sandbur (Jellis) 14
Anmer (H. Jones) 15

Betting.

The betting was as follows:—
6-4 Craganour, 100-1 Aboyer and 10-1 Louvois.

Fifteen ran.

Craganour won by a head, a neck separating second and third.

The Race.

From a good start Aboyer led from Aldegonde, Craganour, Nimbus and Louvois. After traversing six furlongs, Aboyer was still leading with Craganour second. Rounding Tattenham Corner, Aboyer was still the pioneer, followed by Shogun and Craganour. Close to home Craganour challenged the leader and won an exciting race by a head. Time 2min. 37 3/5 secs.

Objection Sustained.

An objection to Craganour for bumping was sustained, and the race was awarded to Aboyer. Great Sport, ridden by Stern, becomes third. The corrected result is therefore:—
Aboyer (Piper) 1
Louvois (Saxby) 2
Great Sport (Stern) 3

A later message states that Mr. Cunliffe, the owner of Aboyer, declined to lodge an objection, but the official stewards objected to the winner on the ground that the second horse was jostled.

After hearing the evidence of the judge and several jockeys who were riding in the race, they found that Craganour did not keep a straight course, but interfered with Shogun, Day Comet and Aboyer and bumped and bored the second horse.

The stewards state that they did not disqualify Craganour because of bumping; that took place during the last half furlong; but because they were satisfied that Reiff unduly interfered with the other horses during the greater part of the race.

They also wish it to be known that "All right" was not officially called, but was done by an irresponsible person at the weighing-room door.

An Astonishing Incident.

An astonishing incident occurred during the race. A woman rushed on to the course, seized the bridle of the King's horse,

DERBY SENSATION.

A SUFFRAGIST'S ACT.

Reuter's [Service to the "Telegraph."] London, June 4.

The incident by which the woman Davison brought down the King's horse created a tremendous sensation. The woman is now lying in Epsom Cottage Hospital, having sustained most serious injuries to her head.

Under her jacket, around her waist, was a suffragist flag. The name of Emily Davison was on her clothing. She is a graduate of London University. She is between 30 and 40 years of age and has been imprisoned several times for suffragist offences, including striking a Baptist minister at Abbeey in mistake for Mr. Lloyd George.

It appears that she ran out from the crowd and got in front of Anmer. She did not grasp the bridle, but held up her hands and the horse turned a somersault, falling on its jockey.

The woman was hurled to the ground, and when the horse recovered itself Jones's foot was still in the stirrup, and he was dragged a few yards.

His Majesty immediately enquired as to the jockey's condition and the doctors reported that Jones was suffering from slight concussion, but that no bones were broken, though his left arm was somewhat badly injured.

Their Majesties, on driving back to Buckingham Palace from Epsom were sympathetically cheered.

Another Accident.
There was another accident in the race after the Derby. Mr. Leopold Rothschild's horse Felizardo fell and had to be destroyed, the crack jockey, Whalley, being hurt.

Betting.

The betting in the case of Great Sport was 20 to 1 against.

BRITISH POLO TEAM.

ANOTHER BIG VICTORY.

London, June 4.

The British polo team, in a trial game at Meadowsbrook against the American runners-up, defeated their opponents by 13 goals to 4.

THE SALT GABELLE.

SIR R. DANE LEAVES FOR CHINA.

London, June 4.

Sir Richard Dane has left for China to take up the position of Administrator of the Salt Gabelle.

HOME CRICKET.

Surrey beat Hampshire at the Oval by an innings and 40 runs.

Kent and Yorkshire drew at Bradford.

Northamptonshire beat Warwickshire at Birmingham by five wickets.

LIBERALS' DISCRETION.

NOT TO CONTEST WANDSWORTH.

London, June 4.

The Liberals have decided not to contest Wandsworth, where a bye election is necessitated by the retirement of Sir Henry Kimber.

At the last election Sir Henry Kimber's majority was 4,814.

HUNGARIAN POLITICS.

UPROAR IN PARLIAMENT.

Reuter's [Service to the "Telegraph."] London, June 4.

Reuter's correspondent at Budapest states that there was a furious uproar in Parliament to-day, the Opposition Deputies showering opprobrious epithets on the Premier, Dr. von Lucaky, and on Count Tiza. The Ministerialists responded, whereupon the Parliamentary Police arrived and ejected some of the members.

Eventually the Premier announced the resignation of the Government, and the Opposition left the Chamber denouncing Count Tiza as a coward and a murderer.

BALKAN AFFAIRS.

GREECE AND BULGARIA AGREE.

London, June 4.

According to a telegram from Salonika, an agreement has been reached between Greece and Bulgaria, establishing a neutral zone with a view to averting further conflicts.

Bulgarian Crisis Pending.
It is reported in Vienna that the Bulgarian Cabinet had resigned in connection with Sarvia's attitude, but a crisis is not expected before the return of Dr. Danoff.

Financial Commission Opens.
Reuter's Paris correspondent states that M. Pichon opened the Financial Commission which is to settle questions arising out of the war. He welcomed the delegates and expressed the hope that the Conference would be successful in promoting the economic interests both of the late belligerents and of the Powers, the Commission adjourned until the 9th inst.

ANGLO-GERMAN AMITY.

THE BERLIN VISIT.

London, June 4.

Reuter's Berlin correspondent says that at a dinner on King George's birthday, Sir William Gorchon, British Ambassador, in proposing the toast of "The Kaiser," referred to the latter as the friend of England. In toasting King George, Sir William said he had it from their Majesties' own lips that the left Berlin full of happy, grateful thoughts. They were profoundly touched by the affectionate kindness and consideration of their Imperial hosts, and the cordiality and goodwill of the population. The visit was an immense success and could not have been better timed, when the Powers had a breathing space after a difficult and anxious time, and when Great Britain and Germany were spontaneously co-operating for the maintenance of the peace of Europe.

OBITUARY.

LORD RENDEL.

London, June 4.

The death of Lord Rendel is announced.

[The deceased, formerly Mr. Stuart Rendel, was the first Baron, the title being created in 1894. Formerly he was a member of the firm of Sir W. Armstrong and Co., and from 1880 to 1894 was Liberal M.P. for Montgomeryshire. Deceased, who was a widower, leaves no heir.]

CONSPIRACY CHARGE.

PORTUGUESE LADIES ACQUITTED.

London, June 4.

Reuter's correspondent at Lisbon reports that a court martial has acquitted two ladies, Brita Cunha and Catherine Linhares, as well as Lieut. Sclari Alegro and four others, of the charge of Monarchist conspiracy.

PHOTOGRAPHY REVOLUTIONIZED.

Films, Plates and Dark Room said to be Unnecessary.

Mr. Edmond F. Stratton, of New York City, has invented a camera that takes and completes pictures ready to see in two minutes, says an American contemporary. It does away with the expense of buying films or plates and the trouble, expense and delay of having them developed and pictures printed by a photographer. The camera has a fixed focus lens and there is no delicate focusing mechanism to get out of order or for you to learn to operate.

This camera, which is called the Gordon Camera, is being manufactured by the Gordon Camera company, 1708 Stuyvesant building, New York, N. Y.

The sensitized cards are wrapped for daylight loading, and the powders make the developing solution to be put into the developing tank, which is inside the camera. Model A is 5x8. 1-2x9 inches in size, and weighs 2 lbs, 4 oz. Model B—6x9x10 inches—weight 2 lbs, 14 oz. Model C, 9x9x10 inches—weight 3 lbs, 7 oz.

The cost of taking pictures with the Gordon camera is almost nothing in comparison to all other cameras. Extra sensitized cards (2. 1-2x3. 1-2) can be bought for 1. 1-2 cents each (3. 1-4x5 1-2 for 3 cents), and 10 cents worth of developer will develop over 40 pictures. The Gordon Camera sells flash light lamps for 80 cents, which will enable you to take pictures at night in your own parlour or out of doors.

The operation of this new camera is so simple that any little boy or girl can easily take pictures with it after reading the directions sent with each one.

THE BELFAST SEIZURE.

TORY "STAGE TRICK."

Reuter's [Service to the "Telegraph."] London, June 4.

The rifles seized by the Customs at Belfast numbered 2,000. They are of a modern pattern, and of foreign make. They were consigned vaguely to order; hence the Customs officers opened the boxes. Technically, the arms are not seized, as there is no authority for detaining arms legitimately consigned to anyone in Ireland, but they are detained, because they were wrongly described. There is no information as to the consignees.

The news occasioned a sensation in Belfast, a crowd rushing to the docks. It is believed that the authorities had received information of the consignment, and the Liberal papers say it is a "Tory stage trick."

SINGAPORE'S TRADE.

A Good Increase Recorded.

The returns of imports and exports for the quarter ended March 31st are now published, says the "Singapore Free Press." The figures do not include trans-shipment trade. Both seaborne and rail trade are included, except the figures of rail traffic between Penang and the F. M. S., which are inserted in the annual returns only. The summaries show the following:—

Imports. 1st Qr. 1913
Singapore ... $82,047,040
Penang ... 30,733,745
Malacca ... 2,276,453

Total ... 115,058,138
This is an increase of $12,713,755 for Singapore (over twenty per cent.); the other Settlements showing a small increase. Rice is one of the articles of largest increase, $3 millions; provisions $250,000, pepper also about $250,000; tobacco $300,000; tin ore over $6 millions, as was to be expected from the good prices maintained, though the quantity also shows the substantial increase of 50,000 piculs—twenty per cent. on last year.

Coal and other imports show normal receipts, but para rubber has increased in weight from 8,413 to 19,034 piculs; and in value from two millions to four. Petroleum has fallen off, but rattans have almost doubled, and the imports amount to about $160,000 in the quarter—quite a respectable trade. Cotton goods had rather a brisk time going up from $6,381,000 to $9 millions.

Exports. 1st Qr. 1913
Singapore ... $65,266,544
Penang ... 27,975,308
Malacca ... 3,847,538

Total ... 97,089,388
The increase is $12,259,139, that is about 14 per cent. Here again Singapore is responsible for the greatest increase—another 20 per cent. The deduction is that trade in Singapore during the first quarter of 1913, was very brisk, the figures almost entirely accounting for the general increase in trade.

New "Royal" Orchid.
A new orchid, which took six years to produce, has been named the "Princess Mary" (Ondoglossum crispum). Bearing claret markings on pure white petals, with a yellow crest, it was exhibited last month by Messrs. W. Bull and Sons, Chelsea.

No Smoking in Theatres.
At a special meeting of the Society of West End Theatre Managers, a resolution against the proposal to allow smoking in their theatres was carried with but one dissent. The meeting was a representative one, and the managers opposed to the proposed innovation were very emphatic on the subject.

Commercial Propagandism in China.

It is difficult in a matter which so directly affects the profits of any concern to drive home the lesson that in this case, above all others,
the greater includes the less.
National credit is conducive to the advance of each firm within the nation. What is primarily necessary in all competition in foreign markets is establishment of national reputation, because the fact that the goods are British filters into the minds of the foreigner far more readily and quickly than the fact that the goods are from Smith,
Jones, or Robinson, or even Macdonald. The Germans have long since given effect to this truism, and their propagandism is much more national because collective. In is more influential, too, for in addition to its comprehensive appeal, there is the fact that a combination can make a better showing for a given expenditure than can many individuals together spend the same amount,
but who act independently.

South China Morning Post.

The Marconi Investigations.

The Ministers who have been castigated in the columns of the public press for months past have only themselves to blame if for a moment their public character and life have been endangered.
We have for many years taken a pride in the purity of the public life of great Britain. There was cause to be proud of the fine records of most of the men who have devoted their lives to the public weal, and the national conscience—always sensitive—was stirred when critics insisted that ministers of the present Government had sought to profit by knowledge gained in their public capacity. It was almost unthinkable that such a state of affairs had come to pass in British politics, particularly by men who are in receipt of "fat" salaries.
However, it is gratifying to learn that the proofs adduced only showed errors of judgment, and that no charge of corruption could be maintained. It will be a salve to the consciences of many, but the revelations and the lesson will have a strong effect upon any one who would sacrifice public honour for private gain. The of Ministers of State should be above suspicion.

Daily Press.

The Chinese Situation.

There have been many evidences lately in China of a growing recognition of the fact that the political parties so far from furthering the interests of the country by their lamentable exhibitions of ineptitude in the Legislative Chambers of the country, are destroying public confidence in the stability of the Government and creating wide-spread fear of civil war—a state of uneasiness which is plainly manifested in the present state of the trade of the country. Consequently the merchants are protesting. The united Chambers of Commerce last month published a notable appeal to the political parties to cease their intriguing and bickering, and to co-operate in efforts to maintain peace and order throughout the country, as being the only sure basis of progress and prosperity and the only way to preserve the integrity of the country. The commercial classes clearly perceive the dangerous drift of the tide, and it is quite time that some effort were made to educate the political parties up to a true comprehension of the situation. . . . It has been the salvation of China so far, that Yuan Shih-kai has boldly exercised that power, but it is obvious that if the political parties continue to exert themselves only to thwart the President and to weaken and destroy his authority, instead of working with him along the only practical lines for the good of the State, there can be no doubt that Mr Drummond's pessimistic predictions will speedily be fulfilled.

GENERAL NEWS.

A Plague of Locusts.

The plague of locusts in Selangor continues for we read in the "Malay Mail":

"This morning a swarm of locusts, fully grown, appeared from the direction of Batu Caves and having dined off the young and tender shoots of trees and other appetising green stuff, flew off in search of pastures new. They were most numerous on the road leading to the Rifle Range, an adjacent rubber estate, and the M.S.V.R. Camp. Our informant could not telephone to the Agricultural Department as he was informed that their telephone was out of order."

The New King of Albania's Family.

Mr. Jaray, the author of "L'Albanie Inconnue," contributes to "Le Temps" an interesting summary of the family history of the new King of Albania. He takes us back to the middle of the fifteenth century, when Topia, Duke of Durazzo, fought under the banner of Scanderbeg. One of his brothers married Scanderbeg's sister, and his son and heir fell into the hands of the Turks after Scanderbeg's death at Alessio. One of Scanderbeg's officers followed him into captivity in order to see to his upbringing. He entered the Turkish service and became Ali Bey, the founder of the family of Topkap, of which Essad Pasha is the present head.

F. M. S. Railway Development.

A number of prominent business men whom we have seen, regarding the suggested extension of the F.M.S. railway and its connection with the new Southern Siamese line, are emphatic in their opinion, says the "Peking Gazette," that Peking has a unique opportunity of pushing her interests and establishing her position in the commercial world, and they urge that the Chamber of Commerce should take up the matter energetically and without delay. It is gratifying to know, on the authority of Mr. J. Mitchell, the chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, that that body is fully alive to the situation and that steps are being taken to bring the views generally held in Peking, to which we have given expression, to the attention of the Government. The Hon. R. Young and the Hon. D. A. M. Brown also keenly interested themselves in the matter.

"Suffragist Tricks" in Japan. The Kansaku Normal School, which has been threatened with destruction by fire four times at the hands of incendiaries within a couple of months, is still receiving attention from some mischievous individuals. Quite recently someone obtained access to the premises and damaged several drawings by Mr. D. Nishimatsu, a teacher of the school, daubing them with black ink and scribbling on the walls of the class-rooms insulting epithets against the school. The authorities believe there is some connection between the incendiarism and the latest outbreak, and strict search is being made for the culprit or culprits.—"Japan Gazette."

Ceylon and the Tropical College. Sir Henry McCallum, Ceylon's late Governor, in a letter in the "Times" of May 12 says, according to the London correspondent of the "Times of Ceylon," that no colony approaches Ceylon for adaptability for the tropical college. Peradeniya Gardens offer a unique and ready-made site. The whole island is devoted to tropical agriculture and a great advantage is for the student being hourly in touch with the Tamil, the labourer in most tropical colonies, and he could obtain a colloquial knowledge of that essential language. He appeals to representatives of Eastern estates to energetically support the proposal.

Interesting Marriage. All the Straits and Ceylon friends of the late Sir J. F. Dickson, formerly Colonial Secretary, Straits Settlements, and of Lady Dickson will be interested to learn of the marriage, at Chittagong, of Capt. Egbert Dickson, 74th Punjab, their third son, to Miss Tola Mary Benson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Benson, Balham, London.—"Singapore Free Press."

THE JAPANESE QUESTION IN CALIFORNIA.

Statement by Baron Makino.

Baron Makino, Minister for Foreign Affairs, interviewed by Messrs Adachi and Tomito, of the Rikken Doshikai, made a statement regarding the anti-Japanese question in the United States, says the "Japan Gazette."

Since the issue of the question in California, he said, the Japanese Ambassador at Washington, Viscount Chinda, in compliance with instructions from Tokyo, had a series of conferences with the Washington Government, which was manifesting great sympathy with Japan and doing all in its power to secure a speedy settlement of the question. After paying a tribute to the work of Mr. Bryan, Secretary of State, in endeavouring to secure a settlement of the question while the Anti-Asian Landownership Bill was under discussion, Baron Makino proceeded to point out that the Washington Government is under present circumstances, to a certain extent powerless to control legislation in California—a fact which ought to be taken into consideration by Japanese. Under date of the 19th ult. the Tokyo Government, through its Representative at Washington, lodged "a sort of protest" with the United States Government in regard to the Bill, and a reply from Washington was received in Tokyo the following day. By mutual consent, however, the particulars of the reply would not be made public by either side, at least for the present. A proposal to appeal to the Supreme Court for a final decision is a question requiring careful investigation on Japan's part, and must first be referred to law specialists before such procedure is taken by Japan. The Government of Tokyo and Washington are now considering this point. In conclusion, the Foreign Minister hinted that the demand by Japan for the acquisition of naturalization rights in the Republic was not likely to be entertained, since the majority of Americans appear to be opposed thereto.

The Taiheyo Taishin, a Tokyo news agency, publishes the following: "We are informed on good authority that the attitude of the Washington Government concerning the California Land Problem has come to show an abrupt change. Since Mr. Bryan's return to Washington from California his attitude became very evasive and non-committal. It is surmised that he was hopeful when he first started on his mission to the centre of anti-Japanism, but his personal presence proving to be of no avail, he must have returned to Washington a disappointed man. "The protest filed by our Government principally dwells upon the infringement of the vested right of our people in California as the result of the enforcement of the Alien Landownership Law. The answer of the Washington Government to our protest is still a secret, but it is not difficult to see that that Government does not agree with the contention of our Government. The California Bill, according to the Washington authorities, cannot be considered to be a violation of the treaty in force. "We understand that three of the members of the Washington Cabinet were staunch supporters of our interests, but their advocacy was overruled by the majority in the Cabinet, and the change of attitude of the American Government is believed to be the result of that meeting. "It was at first hoped that the Washington Government would take the initiative in bringing a test case, when the California Land Bill should become law. But that hope is now entirely gone. According to the Washington authorities, the result of the judgment either way would bring the Cabinet, and the change of attitude of the American Government is believed to be the result of that meeting. "It was at first hoped that the Washington Government would take the initiative in bringing a test case, when the California Land Bill should become law. But that hope is now entirely gone. According to the Washington authorities, the result of the judgment either way would bring with it unfavourable consequences to them. The defeat of California's cause would result in alienating the State from the present Administration, while its victory would prove to be too humiliating for the Democratic Government to suffer. It is believed that party interest has come to play a prominent part in deciding the attitude of the Washington Government toward the California issue."

VOLUNTEERING IN THE STRAITS

Brigadier-General Whitacre Allen, Officer Commanding the Troops in Ceylon, who is shortly leaving the island on completion of his four years' term of command there was good enough to grant an "Observer" representative a farewell interview when, in an interesting chat, he discussed volunteering matters as they affect the island. He said: "I do not think that so far volunteering has been taken seriously enough. I think that too many men have been inclined to look upon it as a pleasing amusement; that it has not been taken as a real business; and if it interferes in any way with their amusements, volunteering is the thing that has to go to the wall. Of course there are many exceptions to this, but that is my general impression. In my opinion it is the duty of every European in a Colony like this to be a volunteer, no matter what his position is, so long as he is physically fit. I think the action taken by the present Governor of the Straits Settlements shows which way the wind is blowing. The other day he said that his Government would be delighted to back up any movement originating with the European population for some measure of compulsory service—universal training, in fact. And I think we here in Ceylon ought to go in for a thing of the kind even more than those living in the Straits. We are far more open to attack, and we have not the garrison that they have got."

Heat-wave in Europe.
A heat wave passed over Central Europe at the end of April. At Strasburg, on April 30, 21 German soldiers while at drill collapsed and had to be taken to hospital.
Accident on the "Kongo" at Greenock.
A London telegram to the "Nichi Nichi" reports that Commander Masaki, second-in-command of Japanese cruiser Kongo, recently completed in England, fell from a height of thirty feet while examining the search-light apparatus on the vessel at Greenock at midnight on the 15th ult. In consequence of the fall the officer sustained serious injuries to his left arm and right leg. He was immediately taken to a Glasgow Hospital, and underwent some internal injuries, and apprehensions are felt as to his recovery. He distinguished himself in connection with the blockade of Port Arthur in the late war.

BOARD OF TRADE RETURNS

After a slight check in March the trade figures show another large increase for April. The fact, however, that April last year included Good Friday and Easter Monday accounts for part of the increase. A year ago, also the country was in the throes of the coal strike. The imports in April, which amounted to $2,956,474, are better by over $2,500,000 than in the corresponding month of last year. Exports improved by $1,165,462 to $4,305,589. Cotton again provides the most striking feature of the returns, raw imports amounting to $3,270,361, less than half the value recorded in April last year. Manufactured cotton exports, however which in March fell by $1,052,599, in April rose by $1,255,589. The increase in exports is due to manufactures, which rose by $6,713,692, and coal, which was $3,664,355 more than last year. For the four months of the year imports at $259,209,349 are up by nearly $11,000,000, and exports are greater by $18,352,739 at $170,360,978 compared with returns for January to April, 1912.

Turning to consider particularly our trade with the Far East, we may note an all-round increase in our cotton yarn exports last month compared with the previous April. There was a notable improvement also in the piece goods trade, the results of which show that sales to China rose $200,000 in value, to the Dutch East Indies $170,000, to Japan $38,000, to the Straits Settlements $58,000, and to Siam $12,000. In the four months China and the Philippine Islands alone exhibit decreases, and the deficit for China has now been reduced to some $80,000. There was a considerable falling off in the shipments of linen piece goods to Japan in April. Both China and Japan, however, took much bigger supplies of woollen and worsted tissues. More soap again went to the former country. Japan's purchases of sulphate of ammonia advanced as much as $80,000, and those of China under the same head were worth $20,000 more. As regards the figures relating to metals and metal manufactures, extra large exports of ship, bridge, and boiler plates and black sheets were consigned to Japan. The same country also took more wrought tubes and fittings, steel bars and angles, textile machinery (an increase of over $20,000), galvanised and corrugated sheets, and tinned plates and sheets. A considerable shipment of steel rails went to the Straits, which colony also took more un-numerated manufactures of steel and iron and prime movers, galvanised sheets, and beer and ale. Larger supplies of textile machinery and tinned plates and sheets were also consigned to China. With regard to the import figures, China tea and silk receipts were again much smaller. A big advance was registered in the quantity of Malay rubber imported. Hemp from the Philippines shows the large rise in value in the month alone of nearly $140,000. Much smaller supplies of soya beans came to hand. Straits tin fell off 595 tons. The bullion figures show that smaller consignments of the white metal again went to China in April. — L. & O. THE ETTI CASE.

Bankrupt's Interests in Hongkong.

The first meeting of creditors was held on May 8 at the London Bankruptcy Court, before Mr. E. Leadam Hough, Senior Official Receiver, under a receiving order made against Mr. Charles Emmrah Etti, company promoter, 490, Uxbridge-road, 102-104, New Oxford-street W.C.

The Chairman reported that the debtor had attended before the Examiner, but had failed to keep the appointment for completion, and was not present at that meeting. It appeared from his statements that a previous failure was recorded against him in November, 1907; no dividend was paid under those proceedings, and no discharge had been obtained. In July, 1908, the debtor became manager and editor of the "Investors' Mart," which paper was taken over by the Holborn Printing Company, formed with a nominal capital of £1,000. The debtor remained with the company for six months, and then went to China, with a view to promoting trade with that country. In 1911 he returned to England to manage the Asiatic Protection Society, the aim of which was to protect Asiatics coming to England, and to promote trade with China. The Society was taken over in August, 1911, by the Asiatic Protection Society, Limited, formed with a capital of £1,000, and a few months later the name was changed to the China Trust Exploitation Society, Limited. The debtor acted as traveller for the Society, and went to China on its behalf in August, 1911. In his absence the company, he alleged, went into illegal voluntary liquidation to rid themselves of their liability to him for about £3,000 in respect of salary and money advanced. Whilst in China in September, 1911, the debtor started business in partnership with Young Tai, a Chinaman, at Hongkong, as financial, civil, and consulting engineers and general contractors. In February, 1912, Charles E. Etti and Co., Limited, was formed with a capital of £1,000, to take over the business, and in the following October the name of that company was changed to the Engineering Union of China, Limited, the capital being increased to £10,000. The company was still carrying on business. In November, 1911, the debtor obtained a concession from the Chief of Seventy-Two Guilds, of China, to open branches for promoting trade with China, and to publish the "East and West Review." A company was registered in February, 1912, as the East and West Society of China, Limited, with a share capital of £1,000 and debentures £5,000. The paper was still being published, and the company was carrying on business. The debtor had also been interested in J. Brown and Co. (Oriental), Limited, formed to import Chinese blackwood furniture into England.

The meeting was adjourned for three weeks to enable creditors to be notified of the proceedings, and with a view to a more representative body being in attendance.

International Horse Show.

The trophies to be competed for include the King Edward VII. £500 Gold Cup and the King George V. £500 Gold Cup. The total value of the awards is £12,000, of which £10,000 is in cash.

Montreal to Vancouver in 72 Hours.

The Canadian Pacific Railway are endeavouring to establish an express train in their service which will do the journey from Montreal to Vancouver in 72 hours. It will be the fastest transcontinental train on the continent. The calculation is based on an average speed of fifty miles an hour for 60 hours, and twelve hours for stops.

"Stop taking Drugs and Stimulants! It's

SANATOGEN

You want for your Nerves."

Such is the modern physician's advice to victims of nervous disorders.

In his book on "Nerve Energy," Dr. Claude L. Wheeler says: "Many people have, through ignorance of the consequences, become victims of a habit of taking drugs and stimulants. To such people Sanatogen offers a form of force that may be drawn upon without danger. Sanatogen, in a perfectly normal way, creates new tissue and nerve cells. It builds up, reconstructs and renders stable."

Similar statements have been made by over 16,000 practising physicians, who certify to the unique value of Sanatogen in overcoming such nervous symptoms as:

Insomnia Palpitation of the Heart
Depression of Spirits Morbid Anxiety Irritability of Temper Easily-induced Physical Nervous Dyspepsia and Mental Fatigue.

Among the many famous people who have publicly testified to the value of Sanatogen is the Right Hon. Sir John Gorst, Privy Councillor to the King of England, who writes: "Sir John Gorst wishes to say he has long been acquainted with the great merits of Sanatogen—has taken it with excellent results, and when necessary will certainly take it again. It was also used by a daughter of his with great benefit."

If you, who read this, are run down or suffering from any of the symptoms mentioned, do not seek the false aid of drugs and stimulants, but begin at once to rebuild and revitalise your nervous system by means of a course of Sanatogen. It is sold by all Chemists.

Write to-day for a Free Copy of "The Art of Living," by Dr. Andrew Wilson. This interesting book tells you all about Sanatogen, and also contains a great deal of valuable advice on health topics. Write at once, mentioning this paper, to the manufacturers of Sanatogen, Messrs. A. Wulff & Co., 6, Kiukiang Road, Shanghai.

A friendly game of football between H. M. S. Olio and the F.M.S. Government Service R.O., which was played recently at Penang resulted in a win for the Service team by 8 goals to nil. The victorious team was very well represented, while the blue-jackets had to play without some of their best men.

"A Battle Lost." Considerable disappointment is felt at Copenhagen that the British Advisory Committee on Wireless Telegraphy has declared in favour of the Marconi system. Dr. Poulson is reported to have said in an interview: "One battle has been lost, but there is time to gain another. In a few months my Atlantic system will be finished, and then we go on."

HONGKONG, THURSDAY, JUNE 5, 1913.

THE CANADIAN NAVAL QUESTION.

It is a thousand pities that a party political quarrel has been permitted, for a time at least, to frustrate Canada's desire to lead a hand in the matter of Imperial defence. Such is the case, unfortunately, for recent cables tell that the Naval Bill advanced by the Conservative Government has been rejected by the Senate by no inconsiderable a majority. It will be recalled that the original proposal put forward when the idea of helping the Empire was first conceived was to develop Canada's own naval resources; but this plan received a distinct check towards the end of 1911, when Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Government, which fathered the scheme, met with defeat at the polls. Since then, the question has advanced rapidly, and the main features of Mr. Borden's alternative plan, providing for an unconditional gift of three Dreadnoughts to the British Navy, are familiar to everyone.

It may be of profit, however, to look a little closely into the viewpoints of the respective parties on this vitally important question, and more especially at the policy which is favoured by the Liberals, who have brought about the rejection of Mr. Borden's scheme. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and the party which he leads, hold to the view that defence, like charity, should begin at home. Sir Wilfrid has pointed out, in advocacy of his scheme, that Great Britain, in pursuance of her new naval strategy, has concentrated her fleet in Home waters, where as formerly she had vessels in every sea. With this thought in mind, he argues that, just as Canada filled the gap upon the withdrawal of British garrisons, so the young nations of the Empire should strengthen the Motherland by replacing her Overseas Fleets with local Navies. Then, too, he says that while the people in Quebec or the Maritime Provinces may live in security, because the British Fleet is near at hand, this is not so in the case of those who have settled at Vancouver, Victoria or anywhere on the Pacific coast. That, briefly, is the Liberal standpoint. The Conservatives, on the other hand, stand for a gift pure and simple to the Imperial Navy; the three Dreadnoughts to be built in Britain and to be utilised in any way the Admiralty may think fit.

It is, as we say, a sorry development that this question should be made a party one, but it is apparent that opinion is very divided on the subject in the Dominion. We have always held the view that Mr. Borden's plan is the more practical and the more nobly-inspired of the two. It is more essentially Imperialistic; less parochial. In matters of Imperial defence the interests of all are best served, not by the creation of separate and disjointed Navies, but by each contributing its quota to the common weal. The ideal policy, indeed, is best summed up in the motto:—"One Flag, one Fleet, one Empire."

"A Tory Stage Trick."

We wonder what lies behind the consignment of two thousand rifles to Belfast, addressed "to order". The Radical papers, we notice, speak of the affair as a Tory stage trick; and we hope, for the credit of the Unionists; that a total denial will be given, without delay, by those against whom such an accusation is made. Until that denial comes, a certain amount of anxiety must needs be felt, for, without any wish to condemn a man or a section of a party unheard, we are bound to feel that the folly displayed by Sir Edward Carson, Mr. Bonar Law and Mr. F. E. Smith, some months since, in their anti-Home Rule campaign, forms reasonable warrant for the charge which the Liberals are at least hinting against them. Whoever may be responsible, the incident is most deeply to be regretted. There are quite enough troubles in Ireland already, without their being added to in this gratuitous fashion. We should like to know what the Orange party would have had to say, had the rifles been consigned to Cork or Waterford instead of to a Northern port. From Artillery to Rubber.

Under the above heading, in our Service Matters column yesterday, we reported that a Singapore R.C.A. Lieutenant had left the reserve of officers to take a post as rubber assistant. In view of what we said a short time ago, in this column, as to the pay of artillery officers (who, by the way, are better off than most others) we don't blame the gentleman. Nor shall we be surprised to find others of his cloth doing likewise; in fact we have met over a dozen ex-service men who are saving as much out of plantation work in a month as they would have saved in a year in the army or navy. If the Government loses good men in this way, it is its own look-out. Moreover, as time goes on, unless some substantial alteration is made in army pay, the class of lads who, hitherto, have gone to Woolwich or Sandhurst, will not go there at all; they will study, instead, at schools of tropical agriculture, and then betake themselves to the rubber estates, where a healthy—and, if they are useful men, lucrative—calling awaits them.

International Polo.

The team of British polo players at present in America with the object of winning back the international cup have been showing brilliant form in the matches in which they have so far engaged. In three matches they have registered no fewer than 42 goals, against 34 scored by their opponents. Greatest importance, of course, attached to the game reported in to-day's wires. This was a trial contest between the British team and the American runners-up, and the visitors won handsomely by 13 goals to 4. According to recent advices, the contests proper begin on Tuesday next, and, in view of the fine form which the Britishers have been showing since they landed in the States, interest in the fixtures becomes more intensified than ever. It must not be overlooked that the American team also has been doing remarkably good work in practice, and doubtless when the time comes for the supreme effort, our American cousins will strain every nerve to come out on top. But it is evident that they have a hard nut to crack this time. If Milburn does not play in the American team his place will be hard to fill, as he is rated as one of the world's best "bucks."

A Case of Funk.

Realising that discretion is the better part of valour, the Liberals have decided not to contest the seat at Wandsworth, which Sir Henry Kimber has resigned after holding it in the Unionist interests since 1895. At the last election, the retiring member had a majority of over 4,000, while, at the election of January, 1910, his surplus was more than 3,400. In spite of the fact that the seat is a known Unionist stronghold, the Liberals have not, in the past, shirked putting up a fight; but these are days when they can ill afford to face another reverse at the polls. The experiences of recent bye-elections have not been altogether cheery ones, and the task of explaining defeats is not one which the party quite relishes.

Donors and Subscribers.

Too Many Passengers.
This morning at the Marine Court, before Commander Basil Taylor R.N., the master of the s.s. Sui On was fined $25 for carrying 14 passengers in excess of the number allowed by his licence, on May 29. Mr. J. H. Gardiner appeared for the defendant.

Admiral Winsloe.
Admiral Sir Alfred Winsloe, who has been Commander-in-Chief on the China station since January, 1910, arrived home at the beginning of May in the P. and O. steamer India, on relief. His name is said to be freely mentioned in the Service in connection with several billets, for it is known that he is regarded at the Admiralty as too good an officer to keep long on half-pay.

THE ASSAYE FIRE.

A Startling Development.

An interesting development has arisen out of the recent fire in the P. and O. s.s. Assaye. We were informed on an impeccable authority that the P. and O. Co. demanded a cash deposit of 30 per cent. from the consignees as the general average contribution, without giving figures to substantiate the claim.

The consignees on their side refused to pay 30 per cent. and tendered 10 per cent. This was not accepted, but the P. and O. Co. offered to accept 12 per cent., still showing no figures.

This afternoon a consignee, we are informed, issued a writ against the Company, for alleged wrongful detention of cargo.

MISLED BY THE PAPERS.

Mr. Shenton, of Messrs. Deacon Deacon Looker, Deacon and Harston, defended a Chinese who was charged at the Police Court, this morning, with being in possession of a rifle and ammunition without a licence.

It was argued that the defendant had been in Australia for fifteen years, had been reading in the Chinese papers an exaggerated account of the condition of affairs in his country. He had brought the rifle with him for the protection of himself and his hard earned savings.

His Worship (Mr. Hazeland) held that the defendant was a bona fide Colonial and said that for that reason he would only fine him $100.

THE DERBY.

Reflections on Yesterday's Astonishing Result.

[SPECIAL ARTICLE]

This year's Derby will be talked of for many years to come, and will take rank with the victories of Gladstone and Hermit in the matter of historical interest. Craganour, the favourite, won an exciting race by a head from a rank outsider in Aboyer and was afterwards disqualified on the score of interference. If this is not unprecedented—and one rather thinks that it is—it has not, at least, occurred in the Derby within living memory.

In 1844 Running Rein was disqualified from the Derby. Running Rein came in first and was subsequently disqualified because the horse was proved to be a four year old called Maccabens. This, however, is not a parallel case with that of Craganour and was clearly a case of fraud.

As though disqualification were not in itself sufficient to excite people, Reuter reports that a woman rushed on to the course during the race, brought down the King's horse, injured his jockey as the result, and was terribly mangled herself. Here is the very height of madness.

Recent Events.

To return to the matter of the disqualified favourite, recent events had invested this year's race with peculiar interest. In the Two Thousand Guineas he was second only to Mr. Raphael's Louvois on whom he later turned the tables in the Newmarket Stakes. Saxby, the rider of Craganour in the Guineas, stated after the race that he believed he had won, but he had the judge against him. In the Newmarket Stakes Maher was up on Craganour, and Danny's handling (he is the finest horseman among living jockeys) must have meant a deal to the winner.

The Guineas Defeat.

Now, Craganour as a two-year old had been head and shoulders above his fellows, but the Guineas defeat appeared to show that either he had failed to come on as expected or the others who competed with him last year had made more progress than he had. That did not hold of Shogun, however. Craganour was always three lengths ahead of Shogun last year, and he was the same distance in front in the Guineas. Still, Craganour was not regarded as the certainty yesterday, that he would have been if he had maintained last year's form. But for his Guineas defeat he would most probably have started at about even, or at odds on. No horse has started at odds on since 1905, when Cicero won, but it might have happened this season had Craganour gone on as expected.

A Good Favourite

Still, Craganour started a good favourite at 6 to 4, so that his connections apparently had no fear of defeat. Yet he came desperately near to being second. Four feet or so covered the first three, and Craganour won by only a head. The time was 2 mins. 37 3/5 secs., and that time is worth noting. Lemberg put up record with 2-35 1/5, and Taglie and Spearman are credited with 2-38 4/5. These three horses alone have managed to beat the time set up by Craganour yesterday. This being interpreted means that Aboyer, even though he started at 100 to 1 is a rattling good horse—or was yesterday. It is just possible, of course, that yesterday was his day out. The same happened with Jeddah, in 1898. It is a well-known fact that Jeddah that day was in the race to set the pace for one of the Duke of Westminster's horses which, in the result, failed to finish in the first three. Jeddah set up such a cracking pace that he ran away from the rest of the field and was never caught. Just ten years later Signorinetta romped home at the nice price of 100 to 1, and yesterday's result makes the third of its kind, so far as price is concerned.

The Moral

The sustaining of the objection yesterday must be a matter of heartburning to many; but it is also a matter of pride to all who have the purity of British racing at heart. One

THE NIPPON.

What Action will be Taken?

Possibility that the affair of the Swedish steamer Nippon, and her salvage by Messrs Erlanger and Galigner, will be matter of diplomatic arrangement between the governments of Germany, Sweden, and the United States, is greater for the development of to-day, says the "Manila Times" of May 29. This morning it was learned that Struckmann and Company, who are agents for the German underwriters, have been informed that the German foreign office has approached Washington with a note on the question of Erlanger and Galigner's action.

What is more, Messrs Ker and Company, the British firm who are representatives in Manila of the Swedish underwriters, have cabled their principals of the refusal of Messrs Erlanger and Galigner to surrender the vessel, and have asked that further representations be made by the Swedish government to the Washington authorities.

This refusal to surrender was made, as noted yesterday, by Captain Ben Taylor, who is in charge of salvage work for the American firm. When Captain Eggert, master of the Nippon, visited the vessel, he handed the following to Captain Taylor.

"Having duly protested at the Royal Swedish consulate against the action in taking possession of the wreck of the S. S. Nippon, I hereby demand that you deliver the said vessel over to me, the lawful master, and I hereby hold you and your employers responsible for all actions in having unlawfully taken possession of the cargo and vessel.

"E. Eggert,

"Master, S. S. Nippon.

"Signed before me this 24th day of May, 1913.

"F. C. Laing

"Acting Swedish Consul."

To this Captain Taylor made the following reply:

"S. S. Nippon.

"Scarbrough reef, 28 the May, 1913.

"In answer to your written demand for me to turn over the command of the above vessel to you as the lawful master I hereby refuse to do so until authorized by my employers, Messrs. Erlanger and Galigner.

"Yours respectfully,

"Ben Taylor.

"In Charge."

When Captain Eggert returned to Manila he made a protest to the Swedish consul at this port, in the following terms:

"This day appeared before me at the Royal Swedish consulate at Manila, Erik Eggert, master of the S. S. Nippon, which vessel is now stranded on Scarbrough reef, he having just returned from the wreck of that vessel and having been refused possession of the ship and supervision of salvage of same, he hereby protests against the manner in which the salvage work is being conducted towards the cargo and the ship by those at present on board, and further states that there has been practically nothing done towards the salvage of the ship, and very little has been done towards saving the cargo thereby causing serious delay as to the chances of success for the salvage of the steamer.

"E. Eggert,

"Master, S. S. Nippon.

"F. C. Laing,

"Acting Consul for Sweden."

"Manila, P. I., May 27, 1913."

Captain Eggert makes the uncompromising statement that he did not abandon the Nippon with the intention of not returning to her. He told a "Times" man to-day of what his action had been, and asked that his statement should be given publicity.

"First of all," he said, "I did not abandon my ship as a total wreck, and I had every intention of going back to her, when I should have concluded my arrangements for the salvage work. When I got to Hongkong—on the very night of my arrival—I reported by cable to my owners what had happened, and told them that I was setting about the making of arrangements for salvage. This ought to be enough to disprove some statements that I have seen in the newspapers."

HARBOUR LIGHTING.

[To the Editor of the "Hongkong Telegraph"]

Sir,—With reference to your article on harbour lighting which appeared in the issue of May 30, permit me as a seafaring man to congratulate the Hongkong Government on the very sensible and prompt manner in which it decided to adopt the new light for the harbour fairway buoys.

Much more in the same direction is however needed. Hongkong, one of the world's largest shipping centres is at the same time one of the most poorly lighted that a sailor has to enter. Coming from the South, there is only Gap Rock light to lead you through a maze of islands. If this light was a first class modern one with coloured rays warning the mariner against dangers to the N.E. and N.W., giving quick flashes and being also lighted in the daytime during fog etc. it would serve its purpose; as it is now it is a very poor affair indeed.

I think it is a very common opinion amongst mariners that several new lights are necessary in the vicinity of Hongkong in order to make the port a really first class one, notably on the East Point of Ling Ting Island, S. W. Point of Little Ladrone, West side of Ai Chow Island, etc. In case of a typhoon not one light helps the luckless mariner to decide his position when he has sought refuge behind Stone Cutters Island, in Kowloon Bay or in Chung Kwang Bay.

It is to be hoped that the Government takes the step fully out now when a new and, from what can be judged, ideal system of lighting has been placed on the market, and make of this important harbour, what it ought to be—the best in the world.

Enclosing my card,

I am

Yours etc.

"GALLANTRY IN THE ARMY"

Sir—I know you are always interested in any incidents which tend to show the courtesy and gallantry which emanate from the British Regular Army. The following little story will therefore not come amiss. I chanced yesterday to be a passenger on one of the Army launches. As usual on these occasions several of the women and children of the Garrison were taking the holiday across at Stonecutter's Island. The chairs, of which there are only a limited number, were taken up by the ladies, but on the arrival of the launch at the Police Pier, Kowloon two officers (I can't say gentlemen) came on board and because chairs were not available for them, they ordered the policeman on board to turn the ladies out of the chairs. One individual remarked in the manner peculiar to snobs "that these chairs are reserved for Officers." What a difference and distinction the Army seems to make between "Officers Ladies" and "Soldiers Women." I am thankful to say that the abominable priggishness shown by these men is not general throughout the service. There are still gentlemen in the commissioned ranks as well as among the ordinary Tommies.

Yours etc.

MARY WILLEN,

Hongkong, June 5, 1913]

QUESTION OF EMIGRATION.

Ship's Master Before the Court.

At the Police Court, this morning, before Mr. Hazeland, Hermann Oltmanns, the master of the s.s. Wong Koi, was charged with allowing his ship to clear from Hongkong on a voyage of more than seven days duration—to wit Bangkok—having on board twenty-four Chinese emigrants without a licence. Inspector Kerr, prosecutor and Mr. Lewis, of Messrs. Johnson, Stokes and Master, defended.

L. S. Glendinning said on the 9th March at 11.30 a.m. he boarded the ship in question. It was a German ship. He saw the officer and said he wanted to look at his passengers. He looked at defendant's clearance, he had twenty-four Chinese passengers for Bangkok. He knew they were going to Bangkok because each of the twenty-four passengers had tickets. He looked at all the tickets. The chief officer was present when witness examined them. There were also twenty-nine passengers on board bound for Swatow. The ship had a clearance of which he had a copy.

By the magistrate. The officer did not produce a certificate; he only produced the clearance.

By Mr. Lewis:—The 9th was a Sunday. He could not say if the Harbour Office was not opened for clearances on a Sunday. The ship left on Sunday morning, but cleared on Saturday the 8th. She only cleared for thirty, and, by the time she cleared, she had fifty-three. Defendant was prosecuted before the Marine Magistrate for having more passengers on board than his clearance showed, and he was convicted. The clearance showed thirty passengers for Swatow, but he only saw twenty-nine. He saw passengers with tickets for Bangkok like the one produced in Court. The ticket said "One passenger to Bangkok and hotel expenses paid." He was not aware that the boat belonged to the N. D. L. and he could not swear that the agents were Messrs. Butterfield and Swire. The ticket did not contain the name of the ship. It did not bear the name of N.D.L. or of Messrs. Butterfield and Swire. Of the other passengers going to Swatow, twenty-six had tickets similar to the one produced. The ticket produced did not contain the name of the ship. It did not bear the name of the N.D.L., B. and S. or the agents of either. He had not tried to get those tickets and was not aware that they were not issued by either of the parties mentioned. He did not know the laws regulating the port of Swatow, and did not know it was impossible for Messrs. Butterfield and Swire, on any firm in Hongkong to book passengers through Swatow.

A clerk in the entry and clearance department at the Harbour Office said that, on March 8, he issued a clearance to the s.s. Wong Koi. She cleared for thirty passengers for Swatow only; none for Bangkok.

By Mr. Lewis: The clearance department closed at 4.30 Saturday afternoon, and did not open again until Monday morning. The Captain cleared on a Saturday night, stating then how many passengers he had on board. If he sailed on Sunday, and more passengers came on board before he sailed, he had not an opportunity of correcting his clearance.

F. Lenfesty, second clerk in the Harbour Department, said he knew the ship Wong Koi, and he knew she had not an emigration licence. If the master had asked for clearance for Chinese deck passengers to Bangkok, via Swatow, it would not be granted unless he had an emigration licence.

By Mr. Lewis: He had seen the passengers' certificate of the Wong Koi. He knew she was licensed to carry 247 passengers. She could carry that number to Swatow by applying for a clearance from the Harbour Office.

Mr. Lewis argued that one of the essentials of the case had not been proved and that was as to the taking of these passengers to Bangkok. He submitted that there was not even a technical offence for the Court to deal with. The vessel belonged to the N.D.L. and it plied between Hongkong and Swatow, and Swatow and Bangkok and then from Bangkok to Hongkong. The freight earning runs started at Swatow for Bangkok and again from Bangkok to Hongkong. As far as from Hongkong to Swatow was concerned, it was not a freight earning voyage at all, and the ship did carry passengers. They did not look out for passengers, and a matter of fact did not want them. It very often happened that a ship came in to-day bringing passengers from the South, going North, and they boarded any ship that was handy. If they went on board they were taken, but they were not sought for in any way.

Every passenger that arrived in Swatow from Hongkong had to get off the ship as soon as the ship arrived in port, under the port rules and regulations, under the harbour regulations, and the customs regulations of Swatow. Even if they attempted to take passengers through Swatow to Bangkok, the ship had to wait there from a half a day to two and a half days, and every passenger for Bangkok there met a representative of Messrs. Butterfield and Swire, a representative of the German Consul, a representative of the customs, a representative of the Chinese officials, and were also met by the doctor. All the passengers had to be medically examined. All persons going on board booked a passage by Messrs. Butterfield and Swire, at the cost of one dollar, to Swatow. There was no attempt at an evasion of the Emigration Acts for the reason that the whole of the emigration from Swatow was governed by the consulate and by the customs officials and the regulations of the port relating to emigration of passengers from Swatow.

Mr. Lewis went on to argue that the tickets the people had were not issued by the N.D.L. or Messrs. Butterfield and Swire, or their agents, but by boarding-house people who undertook for the sum of $8.50 to convey the holder of a ticket to Bangkok and pay all the expenses attendant on the trip. The tickets were really letters of credit like Cook's world's tour tickets which were recognised as worth a certain credit. These people went to Swatow first and then either left by that boat or some other boat for Bangkok. As far as the master of the ship was concerned they were only going to Swatow. Wherever they went afterwards was no concern of his. The complainant on the boat, who drew passage money, was told the number and he brought the amount back to the captain, and if he was short it was debited to him. The complainant could, if he chose, pay the money to the captain and then, when he returned, go to the boarding house keepers and on presenting one of the tickets get the dollar which he had already paid to the company. The other ticket was for the continuance of the journey from Swatow to Bangkok. Neither of the firms mentioned issued tickets such as the ones in question.

The master of the ship gave evidence bearing out Mr. Lewis' statement. The case was adjourned.

LANDLORD AND TENANT.

Judgment Reserved.

After hearing further argument, Mr. Justice Kemp, in the Summary Court this morning, reserved judgment in the case in which, Lan Wan So, of 263 Des Voeux Road, Central, sued the Tai San Chan Firm, of 235 Des Voeux Road Central, to recover the sum of $1,057, being as to the sum of $280 for one month's rent due from February 1 to February 28, 1913, and as to the sum of $890 for thirty days' rent due at the rate of $30 per day from March 1 to March 23 in respect of 253 Des Voeux Road Central, in accordance with the notice given on January 30, and as to the remaining sum of $77 for rates due thereon. Plaintiff waived $57 to bring the case within the jurisdiction of the Summary Court.

Mr. R. O. Faithfull appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. J. H. Gardner for the defendant.

SANITARY BOARD.

Interesting Questions By Mr. Bowley.

The usual fortnightly meeting of the Sanitary Board was held yesterday afternoon, at the Board's offices, when Mr. D. W. Tratman, R.S.D. presided. There were also present:—The Hon. Mr. E. R. Hallifax, Registrar General, the Hon. Mr. W. Chatham, D.P.W.; Lt. Col. Younan; Mr. F. B. L. Bowley, Mr. Chan Kai Ming; Dr. F. Clark, M.O.H.; and Mr. W. Bowen-Rowlands, the secretary.

Questions.

Mr. F.B.L. Bowley asked the questions standing in his name:—
"i. Will the Head of the Sanitary Department inform the Board whether it is necessary to continue to permit the dumping of rubbish on the unsightly piece of waste Crown Land surrounding the public convenience near 'Le Calvaire' in the Happy Valley?"
"ii. If yes, is it beyond the joint powers of the Sanitary Department, the Public Works Department, the Botanical and Forestry Department and the Captain Superintendent of Police to fence the waste, plant a screen of trees between it and the Road, and prevent muck-rakers from frequenting this happy hunting ground in defiance of the law forbidding trespass on Crown Land?"

The Answers.

In answer to question 1, the President said:—There is no necessity that that particular spot should be used, but it is necessary that some such spot should be available. The rubbish there should only be the sweepings from the roads, leaves and grass, and such odds and ends as are found about the recreation grounds of the Happy Valley. All that is offensive and would be worth while picking over, is dumped there by 'householders.'

Dealing with question 2, the president said:—I hardly think it is strictly in order. If it is the opinion of the Board that any particular thing is desirable for the good health of the Colony, and they make it known to me, it is my duty as head of a public department, to forward the matter to the department which looks after it. But I cannot be asked to state in public what other departments will do. As regards this department I can only say, what I said at the other meeting. "It is possible to catch dumpers, but it is hardly worth the while. To have one fined $5, perhaps half a day's work will be lost."

Suggested Estimate Changes.

The board went into committee to consider the report of the select committee appointed to consider suggested changes in the estimates for 1914, and, on resumption, it was unanimously decided, on the motion of the President, seconded by Dr. Clark, to forward the same to the Government.

Correspondence relative to the proposed bye-laws for dealing with crematoria was read and the bye-laws were referred to the Government on the motion of the president, seconded by the Hon. Mr. E. R. Hallifax.

In connection with the urinal at Happy Valley, the minutes concerning which were published in our last evening's issue, the board decided to recommend the erection of the building on site "A," on the motion of Mr. F. B. L. Bowley, seconded by the Hon. Mr. E. R. Hallifax.

"THE YELLOW DRAGON."

We have received a copy of the June issue of that bright little periodical, "The Yellow Dragon"; the Queen's College magazine. It offers a lot of interesting school gossip, though it seems almost a pity that more space is not devoted to sport. A cricket match against the Diocesan School appears to have been played on April 30 (in which each side scored 22 runs) but we find no record of anything in that line since. The magazine also contains a bright, chatty letter from an old boy in London, a story of how a certain Yeung U-Seung was captured by robbers, and some amusing burlesque "reprints from the Yellow Dragon Hundreds of years Ago."

HONGKONG HOTEL CASE.

Judgment for Defendants.

Yesterday afternoon, after we had gone to press, in the Summary Court, before Mr. Justice Kemp, Paine Judge, the case was concluded in which G. F. Soley, accountant, sued the Hongkong Hotel Co., Ltd. to recover $198, being as to $18, three days' salary in May, and as to $180, one month's wages board and lodging, in lieu of notice.

Mr. J. H. Gardner appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. W. E. L. Shenton, of Messrs. Deacon, Looker, Deacon and Harston, for the defence.

Judgment was given for the defendants with costs.

CONTRACTOR'S SUIT.

No overtures made for Settlement.

In the Summary Court this morning, before the Paine Judge, Mr. Justice Kemp, Mak Kong, contractor, of 118 Queen's Road West, sued Chan Pui Yue alias Chan Loong and Sons, 17 Ship St., to recover the sum of $850.50 being, as to $515.50, for money received by the defendant from the officer commanding the Royal Engineers Hongkong, for the use of the plaintiff, and, as to $135.00, money drawn by the defendant from the plaintiff's business.

Mr. Reader Harris, of Messrs. Wilkinson and Grist, appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. Crowe, of Messrs. Hastings and Hastings, for the defence.

The case which had had two previous hearings, came on for the third time to-day, when his Lordship asked whether or no, there was an opportunity of the case being settled; he did not feel very competent to decide the case as it stood on the evidence called.

Mr. Harris said that there had been no overtures made for settlement.

The case was eventually concluded, judgment being reserved.

Sir Henry Lucy's Record.

Sir Henry Lucy ("Toby, M.P.") of "Punch," presiding at the twenty-third annual dinner of the Readers' Pensions Committee at the Holborn Restaurant, London, said that if the galley-proofs of all he had written for the Press and the publisher during the past forty years were gummed end to end and wrapped round St. Paul's, he did not think there would be a square inch of the cathedral left visible.

BANK NOTE IMPRESSIONS

Hauled Again Before the Court.

This afternoon before Mr. Melbourne at the Police Court, the case was resumed, in which Anton Hauler was charged with being in possession of bank note impressions.

Mr. Lewis, of Messrs. Johnson Stokes and Master, prosecuted, and Mr. R. O. Faithfull defended. The evidence given at the previous hearings was interpreted to the prisoner by Miss Massey, and the case was further adjourned.
